8. [redacted] Talked with Representative William T. Cahill about the case of [redacted], a former Agency employee who has given the Agency much trouble and has now contacted Cahill indicating that CIA has "blackballed him as a security risk." I discussed the case with Mr. Cahill in some detail. Mr. Cahill agreed with my conclusion that [redacted] was a sick man and seemed to agree completely with our action in the case. He did ask if I would consult with senior Agency officials to see if they might have any suggestion as to how Mr. Cahill might handle the case. The Congressman is a former FBI agent. He considers [redacted] a threat to his community and wants to do anything he can to minimize this threat. I am to talk with Cahill again on Thursday morning.

9. [redacted] Talked with Miss Pietrow in the office of Senator Kenneth E. Keating in connection with a list of items and reports she had furnished on 15 August. I responded to each of these items based on [redacted] draft of 19 August supplemented by an oral briefing. Miss Pietrow seemed satisfied on all of these items and said the Senator was most appreciative of our continued assistance to him.

11. [redacted] Talked with General Roderick, Office of Secretary of Defense - Legislative Affairs, to ascertain if he had seen any flash reports on Teller's testimony today centering around a discussion that the U. S. may not be ahead of the Soviets in the ICBM field. I indicated that my report was that Senators Kuchel and Bennett were playing the devil's advocate on this and Teller indicated that, of course, intelligence had been wrong before. (The Director had advised me that since he knew Kuchel
